Freedom of Information Act 2000 Request

Brief summary of the cases conducted by the Counter-Terrorism Division since 2006

Request

The Counter-Terrorism Division of the Crown Prosecution Service (CPS) successful prosecutions since end 2006 has been removed and updated to include only successful prosecutions since 2016.

I would like to request the list and brief summary of cases which have been conducted since 2006.

Response

The Crown Prosecution Service (CPS) has interpreted that your request refers to information that no longer appears on the CPS website.

Due to the age of the cases referred to in your request, the Crown Prosecution Service (CPS) has deleted the information from its website in line with its current web publishing policy. For your information our Retention Schedule can be accessed via the following link:

The list and brief summary of cases conducted since 2006 as described can now be located on archived versions of the CPS website held on the UK Government Web Archive. For this reason, the information requested is withheld under section 21 of the FOI Act – information accessible by other means. Please see the attached Section 17 Refusal Notice for an explanation of this exemption.

For assistance, the information requested can be accessed via the following links:
