Freedom of Information Act 2000 Request

The expenses which cover Keir Starmer's duration as the DPP

Request

Please could you supply me with copies of all expenses claims lodged and paid for Keir Starmer, which cover the entire duration of his work for you as DPP?

Response

In line with the Crown Prosecution Service's (CPS) retention policy, financial records are held pertaining to the last full six financial years, including the current financial year, only.

Most records pertaining to your request are therefore no longer held as Keir Starmer was the Director of Public Prosecutions from 2008 to 2013. However, data pertaining to your request is held from April 2013 onwards and a summary of the same is attached below:
