Freedom of Information Act 2000 Request

Court documents relating to the recent Stanstead Flight and sentencing of Chloe Haines

Request

I'm emailing to discover more about the sentencing of Chloe Haines in the recent case on the Stanstead Flight. Are the court documents, including the detailed justification of final sentencing, open to the public? If so I would like to see them.

Subsequently you clarified it is the document containing the final sentencing remarks.

Response

The Crown Prosecution Service East of England area does not hold a copy of the court transcript covering this sentencing hearing as described in your request. A Freedom of Information request would have to be made to HM Courts & Tribunals Service. Please see their details below:
